Grace Valley Community Church

Constitution and Bylaws

Article I. Name. The name of this church is Grace Valley Community Church, an Arizona nonprofit corporation.

Article IV. Membership. Members are those received by the Church Council after a membership class and who attend regularly.

Article VI. Church Council. The council of five members manages the affairs of the church between congregational meetings. Three members are a quorum.

Article VIII. Congregational meetings. The annual meeting is held in January; notice is given from the pulpit and in the bulletin on the two Sundays before.

Demo document for a fictional organization. Not a real record.