Grace Valley Community Church

Child and Youth Protection Policy

Every adult serving with minors completes a background check every two years and the protection training each year.

Two unrelated adults are present in every room with minors (two-adult rule).

Concerns are reported to the Council Chair and, when required, to the Arizona Department of Child Safety.

Demo document for a fictional organization. Not a real record.